

PRESS INFORMATION

Till Hufnagel joins Petrus Advisers as Partner and Head of Activism

London, 21. September 2015 - Petrus Advisers announces that Till Hufnagel has joined as Partner and Head of Activism. Till spent 14 years with Goldman Sachs where he was a Managing Director in GS' private equity business. His areas of specialisation included the German speaking region, Industrials and Natural Resources.

Klaus Umek, founder and managing partner of Petrus Advisers commented: "Till is crucial to our plan to grow the firm with a focus on value investing and an active approach towards managing our positions. His long-standing private equity and board experience will contribute to further developing Petrus' quality proprietary investment approach based on deep insights into the European equity markets with a particular focus on the DACH region (i.e. Germany, Austria, Switzerland)."

About Petrus Advisers

Petrus Advisers is an FCA regulated alternative investment management firm. Headquartered in London, it was founded in 2009. Petrus Advisers has a successful track record investing in European equities based on its proprietary analysis and entrepreneurial investment approach. Petrus takes a constructive approach actively working together with the management teams and boards of companies where we have a significant stake.

Press contact:

press@petrusadvisers.com

+44 (0)20 7933 8831